JOTTINGS.

— J. Brogan telegraphed down to Reno this morning for twenty men to work on the ice at Prosser Creek—probably to clear the snow off.
— Owing to the non-arrival of Gov. Woods, through the detention of the lightning train, no meeting of the Directors of the Nevada & Oregon road was held to-day. He brings up important papers from California.
— Gentlemen who need gloves for evening wear often lose much time in hunting through different shops, trying to find the size and shade desired. All this trouble would be saved by going direct to the White House, where a complete assortment of perfect gloves is always in stock. The White House has Jouvin's kids, the best gloves made.

Nevada's Census.

Jackson Ferguson, Supervisor of the Census for Nevada, and R. R. Bruner, special Census Agent from Washington, are in Reno to-day. They completed their census work at Wadsworth on Monday, and visited Virginia to take a look at the mines. The portfolio of each enumerator was dispatched to Washington as fast as completed. Therefore the exact figures of the population of the State cannot be given. The returns from Nevada will be footed up there and the exact result will be published in a few days. The Nevada enumerators have not yet been paid. They will be among the last to get their money. The delay in paying them has been caused by the failure of some of them to do their work properly. The returns sent in from Nevada being incomplete, the returns from other States were counted first at Washington. The enumerators of a State are not paid until their returns are complete, so that they can all get their money at the same time. Out of 30,000 enumerators only 3,000 remained unpaid when Mr. Bruner left Washington.
Mr. Bruner goes to San Francisco in the morning to meet a daughter residing in Washington Territory, whom he has not seen for years. He has no further official work on this coast.

A Wild, Wet Wave.

Although the sky looked threatening all day yesterday, and the wind blew in a manner that was exceedingly trying to ladies at the street corners, the snow storm which had been raging on the mountains did not reach Reno until evening. About six o'clock the great white flakes came whirling down before the gale, and in a few minutes the ground was white. The temperature grew milder later on, and the snow gave place to rain, which came down in frequent showers alternating with flurries of snow throughout the night. There was only about half an inch of snow on the ground this morning, it having melted nearly as fast as it fell. The wind to-day had no dust in it, that's one comfort, though the people who had not smoky chimneys were lucky. It is hard to give a name to the particular weather wave which struck Reno yesterday, and has stayed with us since, but it has been a "dem'd moist" and unpleasant one.

Sleeping Car Porters.

The Carson Times says the sleeping car porters running between Sacramento and Carson make about $100 a month from wages and fees. They used to make about $250 per month when there were flush times on the Comstock. The wages of the porters on the Central Pacific are $40 per month. They make up the rest in gratuities.

Imported Havana Cigars from the celebrated factories of Manuel Rivero and Jose Gener at the Wine House.

THE CONDUCTORS' EXCURSION.

The Ball Last Night and the Programme for To-day.

The Conductors' Excursion party arrived from San Francisco at six o'clock last evening. After supper at Chamberlain's they rested an hour or two, and at 9:30 assembled in the theatre for a dance. Langer's fine band, of Virginia, came down expressly for the occasion. The music was excellent. The programme was brief, including only two dances. The conductors were a jolly lot and seemed to enjoy the affair hugely. They had ladies enough with them to fill nearly all the space available on the floor. Only about half a dozen Reno ladies were present. Invitations were confined to the railroad people and the press. The white head of President Sherman, of the Conductors' Association, was seen in every quadrille. The old gentleman was as merry as the youngest. He is a veteran conductor, and is said to be worth a hundred thousand dollars. The dancing of the party was not above the average, and some of the older boys capered in a quaint and curious fashion never seen before in Reno. The ladies of the party were much better looking than those "Bosting" excursionists who were snow-bound here last spring. The dancing ended at twelve o'clock. This morning the excursionists took a special train for Carson and Virginia. The following was the programme for the day:

"The excursion train will leave Reno at 7:30 A. M., stopping at Carson forty minutes. Conductors and ladies are invited to visit the United States Mint, the Capitol buildings and the V. & T. R. R. shops. Leaving Carson, the train will next stop at the Belcher mine, to view the hoisting machinery and pumping engine; thence to Virginia City. Upon arriving at Virginia City, all are requested to assemble at the Consolidated Virginia Company's hoisting works, opposite the depot. After viewing the works and assay office, those wishing to go down in the mines will be provided with carriages from the depot. Those remaining on the surface will be provided for by an excursion to the different mining works and mills of the Comstock. The train, returning, will leave at 5:35 P. M."

The party leave Reno this evening for the east on their special train. They will visit Salt Lake and Denver on their way home. They all express themselves as delighted with their trip. The only thing that has occurred to mar their enjoyment was the death of one of their number in San Francisco. But his death was not entirely unexpected, as he was very ill with pulmonary disease when he left home.

The ball last evening was given by the conductors of the V. & T., whose guests the excursionists have been to-day. W. M. Haveron was Floor Manager, and the affair passed off smoothly under his direction.

Winning Numbers at the Fair.

Winning numbers of articles chanced off at the late Fair are given below. Holders of winning tickets can get the prizes on application at the Convention. "The bride," silver pitcher, lady's hat and shoes, were not raffled for the reason that the lists were not full enough at the time the Fair closed. These articles will be held until the numbers are all taken, when due notice will be given through the press as to the time and place of raffie.

A Roof Blows Off.

About 10 o'clock this morning a sportive zephyr waltzed around on the top of Steele's brick building, Commercial Row, and catching the flat roof by the four corners, flung it down into the street. Engine "48" was switching some freight cars at the time. The roof struck the tender in its fall, knocking the forward truck from the track. It also injured a box car. The roof came down with a crash that startled the whole town. Had any one's enemy been on the spot where it fell, it would have flattered him out in a highly satisfactory manner. But as it happened, the only damage done was sustained by the car.

The Athletic Show and Hop.

There should be a good turn-out to witness the performance in Kimball's hall this evening. The Reno Athletic Club is an institution deserving every encouragement. The entertainment will be pleasing and present a number of novel features. It will wind up with a good dance. Tickets are only $1, ladies free.

A CHAT WITH A PIUTE.

Jonathan Sides on Nevada's Game, Various Indian Foods, His Services as a Peacemaker, and Other Topics—No Bald-Headed Indians.

Jonathan Sides, the Piute interpreter, accompanied by two stalwart braves of his race, visited the GAZETTE office yesterday, and the reporter present engaged him in a rambling conversation. Sides is intelligent, speaks English readily, and is an honest-looking Indian. He prides himself on his truthfulness. "What Sides tells you," he boasts, "is always true. White man not so always."

It was interesting to hear to this cultivated Piute talk of the early days in Nevada, before the white man's foot had been set upon its soil. Deer, he said, are not so plenty as they used to be. There were, in the old time, lots of elk, antelope and mountain sheep in the Sink of the Humboldt. Twenty years ago Sides saw one day, east of Stillwater, forty mountain sheep. Now the wild sheep, the elk and the antelope are never seen.

The Piutes failed to secure many pine nuts this year. The crop was very light. Sides thinks it will be good next year. There were not many locusts and crickets garnered this season. These insects are dried and ground in mortars, and mixed with Piute sugar, make a pleasing dish for the Piute palate. A worm is found in Humboldt Sink which is a much prized edible by the red man. It is three or four inches long, fat and stout. The Indians prize it as the New Yorkers do a "Blue Point" oyster. The main dependence of the Piutes this winter is their store of sunflower seeds. The flowers were unusually abundant this season and large quantities of the seeds were stored. The plant grows in great luxuriance on Owen's river. Its seeds make the principal food of the wild doves.

Referring to the reporter's advancing baldness, Sides could recommend no remedy known to his race. Baldness is almost unknown among them. He had once seen a bald Indian woman in Carson, but she had had a fever, and her hair had fallen out in consequence. Sides said the oil of the milk-snake (a reptile closely resembling the rattlesnake, but harmless) was sometimes used among the Indians to make their hair grow. He felt obliged to decline to catch half a dozen milk-snakes for the reporter's use, on the ground that the reptiles had retreated to their holes for the winter. Next spring, he thought, would be too late.

Asked about the hunting this winter, Sides said that there are lots of rabbits in Red Rock and Long valley. Rabbits are also thick between Eureka and Palisade. A party of thirty Indians had just returned to Wadsworth from a grand rabbit hunt out east. They hunted the rabbits for their skins alone, from which they make comfortable winter robes. The carcasses are left upon the ground. The hunters returned with about a thousand skins.

Having this much satisfied the newspaper man's thirst for information, Sides brought out his own little ax to be ground. He has all his life, he says, acted as Peacemaker between the Indians and the whites. He is now the only Peacemaker left in his tribe. Young Winnemucca, who used to act as Secretary of State to Old Winnemucca, was the first Peacemaker. He is dead. Capt. Charlie Sides, brother to Jonathan, was another, but he also is dead, dying at the same time that the Secretary did. Capt. Charlie did great service for the whites and never received his reward. He went twice to Owen's river and twice to Austin, and made several other expeditions, to pacify Indians who were hostile to the whites. Sides says that when his brother died, a paper, which he believes was a note of hand from Uncle Sam, was found in the roof of the Captain's hat, and burned by the Piutes, who did not know its value. Sides thinks that his own and his brother's services to the white man deserve some recognition from the Government.

Snow-Bound Trains.

It snowed heavily in the mountains yesterday and last night. The C. P. road was completely blocked and trains were snowed in at various points. At 6 o'clock this morning the eastbound overland train was snow-bound at Summit, and a snow plow had been sent from Truckee to clear the way. The lightning train, due here at 6 P. M., was behind freight train No. 6 at Blue canyon. Two light engines that came in from Truckee this morning were covered with snow. The overland arrived at noon.

Nevada's Presidential Vote.

W. E. F. Deal, John Dennis and J. C. McTarnahan, Presidential Electors for Nevada, met in Carson yesterday. Being duly furnished with certificates of election by Gov. Kinkaid, they proceeded formally to vote for a President and Vice-President, and, as was not entirely unexpected, their choice fell upon Hancock and English. Major Dennis will take the vote to Washington.

Teams Against Railroad.

The Silver State says: "The farmers of Big Meadows, not having received any encouragement from the Central Pacific Railroad Company, in the matter of reducing rates for transporting grain, have raised a yell of indignation and started eight teams, loaded with about 60,000 pounds of wheat, for the flouring mills at Winnemucca."

Wrinkled Faces.

It is a painful sight to see young ladies in their teens with wrinkled and prematurely old faces; nevertheless it is quite common, and to any one who observes the tendency of the times the reason is very apparent. Owing to flaming advertisements and bogus certificates, in which are used the names of eminent physicians and chemists, the unsuspecting and credulous have been induced to use some of the so-called liquid beautifiers, all of which are known to be positively injurious, and if used for any length of time will destroy the complexion, so that it will be next to impossible to restore it. Mothers should be very careful to see that their daughters do not use these preparations, but ask for and obtain Stevens' Harmless To-temite Face Powder, the only harmless beautifier. TALK IS CHEAP,

And So Are FINE CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, GENTLEMEN'S AND BOYS' FINE FURNISHING GOODS.

If you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything we have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first-hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. We make a profit on everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of our specialties. Orders from the country promptly attended to. Look out for the White Building with the Gold Sign.

SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

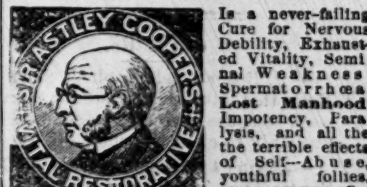

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky hue, again changing to a light and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genital-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 5 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $5. F. S.
